

November 6, 2025

The New Creation Walk

Shalom,

The portion of the Torah found in Genesis 18:1-22:24 is called Vayeira and means “And He appeared.” This parasha relates the time that three visitors appeared to Abraham as he sat at his tent door in the heat of the day. I believe it was Jesus, Himself, Who came to Abraham and told him that Isaac would be born. God’s plan for Abraham came to him little by little in a series of supernatural times of revelation. After Isaac’s birth, God made it clear that it was necessary for the bloodline blessing leading to the Messiah to be through Isaac and made a clear distinction of that fact through physically removing Hagar and Ishmael from Abraham’s household.

It is never profitable to use your natural reasoning to question God. The action that was required of Abraham looks severe, but, in God’s love, the angel of the LORD was sent to minister provision to Hagar and Ishmael. Abraham, when interceding for the people of Sodom and Gomorrah in Genesis 18:25, was speaking by the Holy Spirit when he said, “Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?” God always does what is right. He loves all people, and He does all things perfectly. This situation is no different. There can be no doubt that YHWH, in His love, manifests His care, not only for Ishmael, but for all his descendants. God is not willing that any should perish. He calls all men, Jew and Gentile, to salvation through the love and sacrifice of Yeshua.

Get up, lift the boy up, and hold him tightly in your hand, because I am going to make him a great nation. (Genesis 21:18 CJB)

The direction given by God to Abraham stressed that Isaac and his descendants are at the center of His plan. Galatians 4 gives us new covenant insight into a basic principle of the Word of God that, when revealed by the Holy Spirit and acted upon, will lead every child of God to be fully utilized, as a member of Messiah’s body. Each of us must recognize that the ways of the Spirit of God—His thoughts, plans, and purposes—are infinitely above our natural understanding. This is related to us in a picture of two sons, Ishmael and Isaac, and their mothers, Hagar and Sarah, to show the way of the flesh leads to bondage while the way of the Spirit leads to freedom.

It says that Avraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and one by the free woman. The one by the slave woman was born according to the limited capabilities of human beings, but the one by the free woman was born through the miracle-working power of God fulfilling His promise. Now, to make a midrash on these things: the two women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai and bears children for slavery—this is Hagar. Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Yerushalayim, for she serves as a slave along with her children. But the Yerushalayim above is free, and she is our mother; for the Tanakh says, “Rejoice, you barren woman who does not bear children! Break forth and shout, you who are not in labor! For the deserted wife will have more children than the one whose husband is with her!” You, brothers, like Yitz'chak, are children referred to in a promise of God. But just as then the one born according to limited human capability persecuted the one born through the Spirit's supernatural power, so it is now. Nevertheless, what does the Tanakh say? “Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for by no means will the son of the slave woman inherit along with the son of the free woman!” So, brothers, we are children not of the slave woman, but of the free woman. (Galatians 4:22 – 4:31 CJB)

The Holy Spirit reveals that Ishmael and Isaac represent the natures that are present in each of our lives. Ishmael, who was born by human reasoning of Sarah and Abraham is a manifestation of the works of the flesh; while Isaac, who was miraculously born through the Wisdom of God, and by the supernatural enablement of the Word and Spirit of God represents the mind of the Spirit.

Isaac and his children are fruit born of the Spirit and are to show the Spirit-led life. We must cast out or send away that natural fleshly inclination that desires to rule and have dominion through soulish decision making and usurping control by natural senses and physical strength. That fleshly realm persecutes and mocks the God-ordained, spiritual nature placed within us which is denoted by the covenant words, “In Him,” and it is through our place in His authority, that we show forth our true nature as the sons of God.

The most crucial thing that believers can understand is that we are created by God as spirit, soul, and body, and to recognize that, in His perfect creation, our spirit is to be in control of the mind and body parts of us. We, therefore, have dominion in the earth, not by reasoning, but by allowing the mind of Yeshua the Messiah to operate in us to make us see with the Father. To understand this great truth, we must receive revelation directly from the Spirit of God, and, as difficult as that may seem, God is willing to open your heart and give revelation to you from His Word made alive by the Holy Spirit if you are willing to allow Him to take control. We speak the living Word of God by the power of the Holy Spirit.

“Cast out,” indicates a degree of severity necessary to dislodge. Just wishing to change won't cut it, nor is it something we can just pray that God will do for us. No, you must choose to crucify the flesh, to put the fleshly nature in its place, that is remove it from its place of control, and at the same time, give place to the working of the Holy Spirit within you by walking in obedience to God’s Word, His teaching and instruction. Our fleshly nature is under the control of our mind. We need to make certain that we bring our minds (souls) under submission to our spirits which are united with the Holy Spirit and the Word of God.

Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. (Romans 12:2 TLV)

When the Spirit of God, by the Word of God, shows you an area where the “old man” of the flesh is in control, don’t tolerate it. Don’t make excuses. Cast that old-man way of doing things out. Do it promptly and with force. Choose to handle everything as a new creation. No more gossip, no more judging others, no more solving problems with your own devices, and no more letting your mind run wild.

Moreover, those who belong to the Messiah Yeshua have put their old nature to death on the stake, along with its passions and desires. Since it is through the Spirit that we have Life, let it also be through the Spirit that we order our lives day by day. (Galatians 5:24-25 CJB)*

In the Spirit,
Terry

With your ears you will hear a Word from behind you: "This is the way; stay on it." Isaiah 30:21 (CJB)

Look for LWCF online

(Click the icons below to access the web addresses)

Website:  Living Word Christian Fellowship
where every saint is a minister

Find us on

 YouTube

 rumble

 MeWe®